

The Peer Feedback Form

Group _____

RESEARCH QUESTION

1. What is the research question of this group?

CLAIM

2. What is the claim of this group?

3. How innovative is this claim?

REASONS AND EVIDENCE

4. How many reasons do they provide to support their claim?

5. What are the reasons?

6. For each reason, what evidence do they provide?

PREVIOUS STUDIES

7. Do they introduce the achievements/limitations of the previous literature?

CREATIVITY

8. Do they find their own data point, not discussed or reported in the previous literature?

WARRANTS

9. For each reason, do they provide a reasonable warrant? If not, do you think the logical connection between the claim and their reasons is self-evident? If you are not satisfied, make some suggestions.

LIMITATIONS

10. What do you think is/are the limitation(s) of this group? Do they acknowledge these limitations and give a reasonable response?

PRESENTATION

11. Is their presentation well-organized? That is, do they have the introduction, the conclusion and the rest of the sections in an effective, organized manner?

AUDIENCE

12. Is their presentation easy to follow, or in other words, hearer-oriented?